

Police Respond to Crash and Arrest Driver for DUII

Press release date: 2010-07-16

WEST LINN - On Friday, July 16, 2010, West Linn officers were dispatched to the I-205 south off ramp at Willamette Drive (Hwy 43) regarding a crash. Officer Mike Francis located the vehicle at the gas station just off the ramp where a passerby was assisting the driver change her tire. The tire blew out when she crashed on the off-ramp.

The driver was identified as Sarah Jane RATTRAY(43) of Seattle, WA. Officer Francis conducted field sobriety tests on Ms. RATTRAY and arrested her for DUII. She was lodged at the Clackamas County Jail. Her blood alcohol level was 0.29%, the legal limit is 0.08%.

Ms. RATTRAY was also charged with two counts of Reckless Endangering as she had her two daughters in the car with her on her journey from Seattle to West Linn. They were both under 10 years old and unhurt in the crash.
