

Committee Recommendation Memorandum

The Community Police Facility Development Committee submitted this recommendation memorandum on December 16, 2010. The memo details the Committee's process and recommendation for a new police facility in West Linn. A memorandum from Captain Lancaster to City Manager Jordan is also included which details the site considerations that the Committee used when writing their recommendation memo. Please use the below "comment" field to inquire about the recommendation or any other topics related to a new community police facility.
