

Robinwood Park Open House Scheduled for August 27, 2011 at 11:00 a.m.

Press release date: 2011-08-15

WEST LINN – The West Linn Parks and Recreation Department is hosting an open house at Robinwood Park on Saturday, August 27, 2011 at 11:00 a.m., celebrating the completion of the current plans for the park. Following a brief ceremony, children can enjoy the entertainment of local juggler “Mag” Hughes, face painting by Kim Millen, balloons, and family lawn games. Bring your picnic or “relish” a hotdog lunch, served until 1:00 pm, or as long as food is available.

The newest park amenities include restrooms and the city's fourth splash pad. Prior development phases produced the playground, basketball court, skate area and a paved walking path. The restrooms at Robinwood Park were one of several Parks Department projects funded through the Metro 2008 Natural Areas Bond Measure Local Share Projects.

Robinwood Park is located at 3600 Fairview Way, West Linn, OR 97068. Please click here for directions.

Additional Metro 2008 Natural Areas Bond Measure Local Share Projects include:

- Mary S. Young Restroom
- Marylhurst Park Improvements and Wetland
- Midhill Park Restroom
- Robinwood Park Restroom
- Rosemont Trail
- Willamette River Bank Angling Access (Willamette Catwalk)
