

West Linn Human Resources

The Human Resources department provides centralized personnel services and responsive customer service in support of the city manager, department heads, and employees. The department is responsible for a full range of comprehensive human resources services and programs to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of the organization including: recruitment and selection, benefit administration, new employee orientation, labor relations, training, personnel policy development and administration, personnel record management, and employee relations and recognition.

Source URL (retrieved on 2012-05-10 10:24):

<http://westlinnoregon.gov/humanresources/west-linn-human-resources>