Agenda Items:

Meet and Greet Session:

Members were invited to attend an informal meet and greet session with the new City Manager, Chris Jordan. This question and answer session was held from 6:00 – 7:00 P.M., in the City Council Chambers. The discussion was lively and Mr. Jordan eloquently addressed all of the community questions, in a professional and courteous manner. We thank, Mr. Jordan for taking the time out of his busy schedule to meet with us.

Last month's meeting minutes were presented by Bill Relyea. Minutes were approved by a unanimous vote.

Bela Barany, PCNA Treasurer, provided an update on the budget for 2005.

Overview of Current Projects:

Maxfield/Legend Homes Development Project: The contractor has distributed hay to hold the soil in place during the rainy season.

Officer Doolittle of the West Linn Police Department- Presentation-West Linn Park Watch: Information was given on the joint effort between citizens, West Linn Parks and Recreation, and the West Linn Police Department to ensure the safety of our neighborhood parks. This program is an extension of the Neighborhood Watch program and it relies on neighbors using simple techniques to detect, report, and deter crime and disorder in local parks. Officer Doolittle also discussed other crime in the area and the addition of a canine unit to the west Linn Police Department.

Church of Jesus Christ – Latter Day Saints

Representatives of the Church provided an overview of their proposal to build a church on Rosemont Road. The membership asked questions about the facility and its impact on the surrounding neighborhoods. Some of the concerns were:

Traffic

Noise

Feasibility of building such a large facility in a pre-dominantly residential area

Parking on the site and overflow parking

Use of the facility as an emergency shelter

Other uses of the facility and their schedule

How many residents will be using the facility?

How many cars will be using the facility and what will that impact be on other facilities in the area, parks, schools, etc...

Intersection traffic congestion

Impact on walkway trails and sport activities

Neighborhood Development Consulting Contract

2005/11/30

Published on City of West Linn Oregon Official Website (<http://westlinnoregon.gov>)

Details of the consulting contract were presented to the membership. The membership was informed that the proposals would be available for viewing and comment. The consulting firm of Cogan Owen and Cogan has presented the best bid package according to the PCNA President, if anyone has concerns with using this consulting firm they should be prepared to present this information to the Neighborhood Development Planning Committee at their next meeting. The meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month at the Adult Community Center.

Community Comments Period

No new items were mentioned or brought forward, for the next meeting scheduled for December 28, 2005.
