Statement of Purpose:

The purpose of the HSNA is to maintain and improve the quality of life of residents of the Hidden Springs Neighborhood. The members of the Neighborhood have gathered together to form and support their association because they recognize that they may more effectively and positively influence activities that affect their quality of life by action collectively rather than individually. The HSNA seeks to serve Neighborhood with individuals and families of diverse needs, interests, and backgrounds, and believes in and will strive to support that diversity.
