

Link of the Week

Even though the internet is full of information, it can sometimes be difficult to find reliable, high-quality web sites. The West Linn Public Library is here to help! Every week, our staff combs the the web and features a particularly noteworthy web site that we think you'll find useful. Past links can be found on the library's Delicious site.

04/20/2012

Common Sense Media

This is an entertainment review site for parents, focusing on age appropriateness. Movies, TV show, music, video games, books and even apps are explored with a fine-toothed comb for language, violence, and sexual content. Reviews also rate the info parents really want, like positive messages, educational value, presence of drugs, drinking and smoking, and whether the product puts too much of a focus on consumerism.

Source URL (retrieved on 2012-05-10 14:20): <http://westlinnoregon.gov/library/link-week>