Help Sought for Missing West Linn Woman

Press release date: 2008-05-31

The missing woman's family has been located. After spending a few hours at a West Linn Adult Foster Home, Jane was transported to Meridian Park Hospital in Tualatin. Hospital officials were able to reach her son and she has been reunited with her family.

Jane lives in Tigard and it is unknown how she made it to West Linn. The WLPD would like to thank all those who helped spread the word and eventually reunite Jane with her family.

Saturday, May 31, 2008 at 12:49 p.m., the WLPD was dispatched to Willamette Falls Drive and 19th Street on a report of a confused elderly woman. The woman Jane SULA told officers she was born in 1926, her son or husband's name is Stanley, and she was born in Lithuania. She could not tell us where she lives. She speaks with an accent. Anyone who recognizes this woman is asked to call WLPD dispatch at 503-635-0238.
