

Lost & Found Animals

Lost animals picked up by the West Linn Police Department are transported for holding at Clackamas County Dog Services, 13141 SE Hwy 212, Clackamas, OR 97015 (503) 655-8628. (This facility is approximately 2 miles east of I-205 on Hwy 212. The driveway is on the left and shared with Clackamas Drift Boats.)

West Linn Municipal Code 5.310 A person who finds a dog within the city limits may surrender the animal to the city or retain its possession subject to surrender upon demand of the city or the keeper of the dog. Records of reported findings shall be retained by the city and made available for public inspection.

Reporting Lost Pets:

When a pet is missing the most important step in a swift return is getting the information out. A kind person may have found your dog running in the street and picked it up. They may or may not live in the area, so the more shelters that know you are on the lookout the better!

Where Dogs Are Impounded:

Dogs picked up by the West Linn Police Department are transported for holding at Clackamas County Dog Services, 13141 SE Hwy 212, Clackamas, OR 97015 telephone (503)655-8628.

<http://clackamas.us/dogs/lostnfound.htm>

(This facility is approximately 2 miles east of I-205. The driveway is on the left and shared with Clackamas Drift Boats.)

How to Get Your Dog Out of Impound:

Before Clackamas County Dog Services will release your dog, you will first be required to:

- Pay all fees due to Clackamas County Dog Services. You will need to call them (503) 655-8628 regarding all questions concerning monies owed for impound fees, boarding and vaccinations.

Who to report a lost pet to:

Animal Control Police Dispatch 503-635-0238

Clackamas County Dog Services 503-655-8628

Pet Adoptions West Side 503-650-0855 (cats)

Source URL (retrieved on 2012-05-10 09:16): <http://westlinnoregon.gov/police/lost-found-animals>