

Community Development Code

Community Development Code

The Community Development Code contains development related regulatory information. Included are definitions of zoning districts, permitted uses in zoning districts, requirements for specially regulated uses, development plan review process, environmental management, and special area plans. Often referred to as the CDC, this document is organized by chapter. Missing chapter numbers have have been deleted by ordinance over the years and the CDC is complete on-line.

Municipal Code

Source URL (retrieved on 2012-05-10 01:29): <http://westlinnoregon.gov/cdc>