

Long Range Planning

The West Linn Planning Department's long range planning goals include ensuring quality service to the public in response to the continuing growth and concerns of the community in planning issues. An emphasis on education and citizen involvement is intended to increase communication and understanding of the planning and development process.

Basic responsibilities of Long Range Planning include the development and maintenance of the City's Comprehensive Plan, the conducting of specialized studies, and the coordination with other agencies.

Source URL (retrieved on 2012-05-10 07:04): <http://westlinnoregon.gov/planning/long-range-planning>