

West Linn Update

JULY 2008

Summer events and activities

Mary S. Young volunteers...

Mark your calendar for these upcoming ivy removal work parties at Mary S. Young park. Bring your own work gloves and contribute to the park's beautification:

July 5, 9:00 a.m.

August 2, 9:00 a.m.

September 6, 9:00 a.m.

Summer reading...

It's time for the Summer Reading Program at the West Linn Library! Visit the library at 1595 Burns Street for fun programs for kids and teens. Special programs are offered during the summer, and Summer Reading Program events are listed on the calendar with the notation "SRP." Stop by the Library for a schedule of events.

Concerts, markets, a Willamette Centennial celebration, and the Old Time Fair are on the July calendar:

■ Community Concerts:

Community Concerts are staged at Willamette Park on Thursdays at 6:30. Enjoy Ocean 503 on July 3 and Joel Brantley on July 10. On July 4, three featured bands (Big Mama Gayle, Whiskey Flats Brass, and Gail Gage) take the stage beginning at 3:00.

■ Music in the Park:

This concert series is staged at Tanner Creek Park. Featured acts include Design on July 24 and Rhythm Culture on July 31.

■ Taste of Tuesdays:

Visit the Taste of Tuesdays Farmers and Artists Market, every Tuesday at 4:00 in the Willamette neighborhood.

■ Willamette Centennial:

This community event celebrates 100 years of people, friends, history, buildings and businesses in the Willamette Neighborhood. Visit www.willamettecentennial.org for more information about events.

Community events celebrate the natural beauty of West Linn, Oregon.

■ Old Time Fair:

West Linn's community festival, the Old Time Fair, is held on July 18, 19, and 20, 2008 in Willamette Park. The fair features food, music, carnival rides, a custom car show, and games and activities

■ Event Contacts:

For more information about West Linn special events, please contact Tom Geil with the City of West Linn Parks & Recreation department at 503.557.4700 or tgeil@ci.west-linn.or.us.
