

WEST LINN UPDATE

May 2014

Council Meeting Recaps — Online Each Week!

Each week, the city of West Linn features a brief recap from the City Council's meeting or work session. Every Tuesday, you can log on at WestLinnOregon.gov/CityCouncil to read updates about the Council's actions and discussions. Want to follow the action live? We also stream the meetings online at WestLinnOregon.gov; broadcast the meetings on Comcast Channel 30; and live-tweet the meetings at @WestLinnUpdate using #westlinn. If you've ever wanted more information about city government - this is your chance to learn more and to stay engaged with West Linn!

Let's Talk! We Want to Hear From You.

The city of West Linn has hired a new citizen engagement coordinator, Lori Hall, to assist with creating conversations between the city and residents.

Have a complaint? Have a suggestion? Want to give praise for a project or an employee? We are here to listen and find you answers.

Contact Lori today!

Phone:

503-723-2525

Email:

lhall@westlinnoregon.gov

Twitter:

@LoriHall7

Because I'm Yappy!

Yappy Hour is a social event is for you and your best friend — your dog — at Mary S. Young State Park, 19900 Highway 43. It is hosted by West Linn Parks and Recreation with special thanks to area sponsors. The next two Yappy Hours are April 17 and May 15 from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m.

The April 17 event will feature information on doggie dental care and the May 15 event will have information on diet and exercise for your pooch.

For more information, please visit WestLinnOregon.gov/ParksRec or call 503-557-4700.

Clap along if you feel like yappiness is the truth!

WEST LINN WEDNESDAYS

Email Newsletter:

WestLinnOregon.gov/e-news

Sign Up for West Linn Wednesdays!

Did you know West Linn provides weekly updates on city events, meetings, issues, and more? Sign up online at WestLinnOregon.gov/e-news to receive the latest city news in your inbox! The newsletter also includes interesting profiles, pictures, and insider scoop. If you love West Linn - then this is the newsletter for you.

Stay in Touch With the City of West Linn!

No matter your communications preferences - West Linn has a way for you to stay in touch.

Social Media:

Pick your favorite tool and make a #WestLinn connection — we're on Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, Pinterest, and Twitter!

Online:

Please visit WestLinnOregon.gov; you can sign up for e-notifications every time a new calendar item or Web page is added to the site; or sign up for the email newsletter "West Linn Wednesdays," delivered each week to your inbox. We also offer RSS feeds and comment forms.

In Person:

Read the West Linn Tidings or the Oregonian for the latest West Linn news. Or, attend a citizen advisory group meeting, watch public access television — and we're always able to meet you for coffee!

Free Comic Book Day is May 3 at the West Linn Library!

Celebrate comics at the West Linn Library's Free Comic Book Day and Mini Con event! Meet comic creators, attend workshops, make crafts, and more. There will be face painting, demonstrations, popcorn, and a raffle.

This promises to be a fun event for comic lovers of all ages. Free comic books will be handed out starting at noon (one book per person, while supplies last). Learn more at WestLinnLibrary.com.

