WEST LINN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

June 21st, 2013
8:00 AM
Bolton Room, City Hall

Summary Notes

Attendees:

Quorum established

Meeting Time:

8:00am to 9:20am

Discussion:

- Ashley Graff gave a status report on the LinkedIn networking group, the West Linn Business Exchange, and ways to make it an effective tool for local business support. She shared research about best practices for moderating the page and will soon send mass invites.
- Graff also reviewed the new Available Industrial and Commercial Properties page on West Linn's website and introduced a new web service from Clackamas County that facilitates uniform film and media permits throughout the county. This will demonstrate West Linn's participation in regional efforts and will help promote the city.
- Chris Kerr discussed the schedule of next steps for the Cut the Red Tape project. There was also a review and analysis of individual proposed amendments to the project. The group discussed prioritization of proposals under Cut the Red Tape, as well as upcoming Planning Committee and City Council work sessions and public hearings on Cut the Red Tape.
- Discussion on SDC fees and voter requirements for annexation.
- Discussed reaching out to Jim Walsh and HBBs
- Ron LeBlanc presented a summary of a business interview with "72 degrees" and discussed streamlining the permit process (a "pre-approval sticker") in order to make inspectors available.

- Summary of additional discussion and exit interviews.
- Mike Lindner announced that he is resigning.
