West Linn Library

Activities

Sponsorship

The Summer Reading Club for children and other library programs are sponsored and funded by the Friends.

Book Sales

The Friends oversee the sales of used books in the Book Cellar as well as an annual book sale.

Hospitality

The Friends provide food and drinks at a variety of library programs for both children, teens and adults.

Holidays and Celebrations

Holiday decorations for the library are made possible by funds from the Friends.

Friends provide funding for library programs that otherwise would not be offered.

"Friends Make a Difference"

Become a Friend of the Library by filling out the membership form and giving it, along with a check, to the library staff, or by mailing to the address below.

Our Vision & Mission

The Friends of the West Linn Library support and assist the staff, the Library Board and the City Council in promoting the community's awareness of the Library's resources, services and needs.

We support the Library by providing funds for programs such as summer reading, Music in the Stacks and cultural passes.

The Friends help promote growth, expansion and improvement of the Library's facilities, services and resources.
