REQUIRED COMMITMENT

Parents should note that the commitment required for the West Linn Old Time Fair Court is extensive, not just for the princess, but for the parents as well. During the months of May, June and July, vacations, family get-togethers, church and school functions, as well as, the child's usual array of activities and social events will all be greatly disrupted, and very rarely can conflicts be accommodated in our schedule of events. As your child considers applying please have a serious talk with your child about the commitment involved and sacrifices that may have to be made.

We understand that if selected as a princess, that a dress, casual apparel, and accessories will be provided. Families may be asked to contribute for a jacket.

We further understand that the princesses and their parents are responsible for some meals and spending money, transportation to meeting locations, and that contacting sponsors and a group fundraiser is required.

We have read the West Linn Old Time Fair Court information.
