FEMALE TEEN INTERRUPTS BURGLARY AT HER HOME, SUSPECTS IN CUSTODY

Posted: May 2nd, 2008 5:52 PM

On Friday, May 2, 2008 at 12:57pm, a 17-year-old female returned to her home in the 2000 block of Doral Court in West Linn. Upon her arrival she saw an unknown female sitting on the front porch and a male subject along the side of the home looking in windows. She yelled at them and they fled in a pickup truck. As she opened her door to enter her home a third subject ran from inside the home past her and down the street. The victim called 9-1-1.

Several officers from WLPD responded to the area. Officer Taylor Neil arrived within two minutes along with Detective Nick Amendolara. The suspect vehicle was located a few blocks away and stopped by the officers. They arrested the driver, Brian Eugene FARRELL, born in '87, of 1902 Garfield, North Bend, Oregon 97459.

SRO Allister Bunch and Detective Blain McKean located the third subject, the one who ran from inside the home, a few blocks from the crime scene. He is identified as Job Jack BRIDGES, born in '82 of 2031 Main Street, North Bend, Oregon 97459.
