1. Call to Order: Charity Hudnut, Arts & Culture Commission Chair, called the meeting to order at 5:02 pm.
2. Public Comments:
3. Approval of Minutes: Lauren moved to approve; Shatrine seconded. Approved January minutes (01/08/25).
4. Charity Hudnut, Arts & Culture Commission Chair:

Bike kiosk update: During the process of getting city council approval for the bike kiosk art, drafting the artist contract, and working with the contractor, costs for supplies and materials have gone up. A meeting is being held tomorrow with all involved parties.

Fields Bridge Park wall: Lauren saw a post on Facebook of someone suggesting a mural be added to the new retaining at Fields Bridge Park. Christine and Lauren will form a subcommittee will be formed to explore this. Megan Big John will consulted first.

Music in the Park: At a recent planning meeting the group decided not to have a booth at the Summer Market, but focus on being at Music in the Park instead. Suzanne will head up a subcommittee for a Music in the Park booth. A banner will be purchased with the A&CC information and added QR code for easy access for community members.

Theme and early promotion for fall art show: The group decided to re-use the theme “Fall Into Art” for the October art show. The discussion regarding dates for launching the Call for Artists and the deadline will continue at the next meeting.

- 5. Board Comments: Suzanne Wells brought information to the group about Robinwood Neighborhood Association asking about possible art at the new Robinwood Station. Lauren advised there is a group of all neighborhood association heads that meet and was wondering if it should be discussed there for equitable reasons, however Robinwood Station did get renovated with capital funds and would therefore be eligible for public art funded through Percent for Art funds.

Adjourn: Charity Hudnut adjourned at 6:05 pm.

Next meeting: Wednesday, April 5, 2025, in the Community Room at the library
