1. Public Comments:

2. Shatrine Krake, Arts & Culture Commission co-chair:

- 2025 Annual Report submitted 2/4/2026
- Confirmed programming dates
 - Events tab on group google drive
- Discussed having sponsors specifically for refreshments at Fall Art Show
- Discussed responsibility for programs, cutting back on number of days, at Concert in the Park
- Megan asked if the group was interested in participating in Parks Fall Fest 2026. No decision was made.
- City Newsletter installments about A&CC and art in the City will continue
- Broken links and corrections will be cleaned up on the City Website, Sheridan Corrie said she would be happy to be point person on that/communications working with Megan and Kristen.
- Willamette Corridor project
 - Discussion was made and vote was taken on the first location of art along the Willamette Corridor after Megan presented various locations that are available at this time through images and discussions. The group decided to go forward with discussions with the City Council and the Neighborhood associations to provide art at the front of Hammerle Park. Kristen will find out how to take it to council. Leo Groaner offered to present it if an Agenda Bill is not required.
