

Bolton Neighborhood Meeting 1/21/13

Sandy Carter shares the new PGE video on Willamette Falls. The film is not yet available to the public.

Constance Weaver reads the minutes of the last meeting and they are accepted.

Alma reports that the quilt has all 100 squares and there are only 16 left to quilt. It will be finished tomorrow. The group is having second thoughts about raffling off the quilt. They are considering donating it to the new police station. A discussion followed about presenting the quilt.

Sally briefly talked about a meeting she attended on the transportation corridor from Vancouver, WA to Eugene, OR.

Roger introduces the Centennial calendar and goes through the photos and dates with the group.

Sally shared her story that she wrote about herself and her history here in West Linn. She encourages us to write our own story.

Meeting adjourned at 8:48pm.

14 people in attendance.
