Dolly Parton Imagination Library

DPIL is the largest children's literacy program in the world and provides a free book mailed to a child's home monthly from birth up to age 5

- Dolly Parton Imagination Library has been shown to increase the frequency of reading books together, leading to increased kindergarten readiness.
- DPIL is available for every 0-5 year old child who lives in West Linn/Wilsonville for free thanks to the generosity of many donors, including the City of West Linn
