NEW AND NOTEWORTHY BOOKS

Another

by Christian Robinson

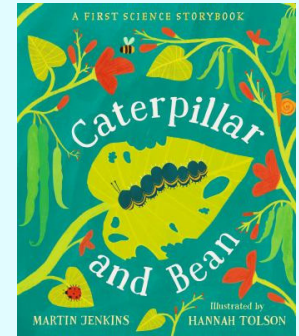

Robinson delights the reader in this fascinating picture book with the unusual concept of being in a parallel universe. Because of his distinctive art, this dream-like adventure provokes wonder and amusement in readers of all ages.

Hive Five

by Adam Rubin; illustrated by Daniel Salmieri

From the dynamic duo of Dragons Love Tacos fame, kids will immediately love this fun, interactive book in which characters are preparing for a high-five contest.

Caterpillar and Bean

by Martin Jenkins

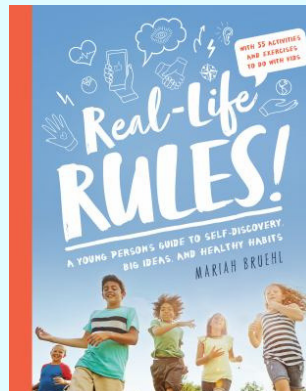

This fourth book in the First Science Storybook series gently shares facts about life cycles with young readers. Complete with concepts to think about, an index of topics, and follow-up questions, this text is valuable to both teachers and budding scientists.

The Emotionally Healthy Child

by Maureen Healy

Healy offers practical, realistic tools that families can seamlessly incorporate into their lives to create healthy, mindful habits to promote emotional well-being for the whole family.

Real-Life Rules! A Young Person's Guide to Self-Discovery, Big Ideas, and Healthy Habits

by Mariah Bruehl

Packed with activities, book recommendations, and creative ideas, this is a great addition to any family library. Although it's advertised for teens and tweens, families will find it meaningful for all ages.

Visit our library or website for more recommendations and book lists.

We love to visit schools!

Enjoy stories and songs, and learn about the West Linn Library! We are available for visits at your school or at the Library. We offer fun storytimes or a theme-based storytime if your class is focusing on a specific topic.
