About the Homebound Service

The West Linn Public Library will deliver library items to residents within the City of West Linn boundary lines who are unable to visit our library due to illness or disabilities, and is anticipated to be homebound for a minimum of 6 months; or are 80 years or older.

Patrons enrolled in this service can receive up to 20 items per month, which will be delivered by contactless delivery once a month. Deliveries can include library items such as regular-print and large-print materials, audiobooks, magazines, videos, and more!

There is no cost to participate in this program, standard library item late and lost fees apply.

To express interest please call 503-656-7853 x5 and leave a message or email woref@lincc.org.

Did you know?

You can access e-books and e-audiobooks with Library2Go with your library card. You can also stream documentaries, foreign and classic films, educational videos, and other great material for all ages with our Kanopy service. Not to mention access free craft patterns and inspiration through Creativebug. All for free!

Interested but feeling overwhelmed with technology? A library staff member can talk to you about your options, and may even be able to help you over the phone with your technology. To learn more you can call 503-656-7853 x5 and leave a message or email woref@lincc.org.
