Order setting aside conviction or record of arrest

- fees
- prerequisites
- limitations

(1)(a) At any time after the lapse of three years from the date of pronouncement of judgment, any defendant who has fully complied with and performed the sentence of the court and whose conviction is described in subsection (5) of this section by motion may apply to the court where the conviction was entered for entry of an order setting aside the conviction; or

(b) At any time after the lapse of one year from the date of any arrest, if no accusatory instrument was filed, or at any time after an acquittal or a dismissal of the charge, the arrested person may apply to the court that would have jurisdiction over the crime for which the person was arrested, for entry of an order setting aside the record of the arrest. For the purpose of computing the one-year period, time during which the arrested person has secreted himself or herself within or without this state is not included.

(2)(a) A copy of the motion and a full set of the defendants fingerprints shall be served upon the office of the prosecuting attorney who prosecuted the crime or violation, or who had authority to prosecute the charge if there was no accusatory instrument filed, and opportunity shall be given to contest the motion. The fingerprint card with the notation motion for setting aside conviction, or motion for setting aside arrest record as the case may be, shall be forwarded to the Department of State Police. Information resulting from the fingerprint search along with the fingerprint card shall be returned to the prosecuting attorney.

(b) When a prosecuting attorney is served with a copy of a motion to set aside a conviction under this section, the prosecuting attorney shall provide a copy of the motion and notice of the hearing date to the victim, if any, of the crime by mailing a copy of the motion and notice to the victims last-known address.

(c) When a person makes a motion under subsection (1)(a) of this section, the person must pay a fee of $80 to the Department of State Police. The person shall attach a certified check payable to the Department of State Police in the amount of $80 to the fingerprint card that is served upon the prosecuting attorney. The office of the prosecuting attorney shall forward the check with the fingerprint card to the Department of State Police.

(d) In addition to the fee established under paragraph (c) of this subsection, when a person makes a motion under subsection (1)(a) of this section the person must pay the filing fee established under ORS 21.135 (Standard filing fee).

(3) Upon hearing the motion, the court may require the filing of such affidavits and may require the taking of such proofs as the court deems proper. The court shall allow the victim to make a statement at the hearing. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (13) of this section, if the court determines that the circumstances and behavior of the applicant from the date of conviction, or from the date of arrest as the case may be, to the date of the hearing on the motion warrant setting aside the conviction, or the arrest record as the case may be, the court shall enter an appropriate order that shall state the original arrest charge and the conviction charge, if any and if different from the original, date of charge, submitting agency and disposition. The order shall further state that positive identification has been established by the Department of State Police and further identified as to Department of State Police number or submitting agency number. Upon the entry of the order, the applicant for purposes of the law shall be deemed not to have been previously convicted, or arrested as the case may be, and the court shall issue an order sealing the record of conviction and other official records in the case, including the records of arrest whether or not the arrest resulted in a further criminal proceeding.

(4) The clerk of the court shall forward a certified copy of the order to such agencies as directed by the court. A certified copy must be sent to the Department of Corrections when the person has been in the custody of the Department of Corrections. Upon entry of the order, the conviction, arrest or other proceeding shall be deemed not to have occurred, and the applicant may answer accordingly any questions relating to its occurrence.

(5) The provisions of subsection (1)(a) of this section apply to a conviction of:

- (a) A Class B felony, except for a violation of ORS 166.429 \(Firearms used in felony\) or any crime classified as a person felony as that term is defined in the rules of the Oregon Criminal Justice Commission.
- (b) A Class C felony, except for criminal mistreatment in the first degree under ORS 163.205 \(Criminal mistreatment in the first degree\) when it would constitute child abuse as defined in ORS 419B.005 \(Definitions\) or any sex crime.
- (c) The crime of possession of the narcotic drug marijuana when that crime was punishable as a felony only.
- (d) A crime punishable as either a felony or a misdemeanor, in the discretion of the court, except for:
- (A) Any sex crime; or
- (B) The following crimes when they would constitute child abuse as defined in ORS 419B.005 \(Definitions\):
- (i) Criminal mistreatment in the first degree under ORS 163.205 \(Criminal mistreatment in the first degree\); and
- (ii) Endangering the welfare of a minor under ORS 163.575 \(Endangering the welfare of a minor\) (1)(a).
- (e) A misdemeanor, including a violation of a municipal ordinance, for which a jail sentence may be imposed, except for endangering the welfare of a minor under ORS 163.575 \(Endangering the welfare of a minor\) (1)(a) when it would constitute child abuse as defined in ORS 419B.005 \(Definitions\) or any sex crime.
- (f) A violation, whether under state law or local ordinance.
- (g) An offense committed before January 1, 1972, that if committed after that date would be:
- (A) A Class C felony, except for any sex crime or for the following crimes when they would constitute child abuse as defined in ORS 419B.005 \(Definitions\):
- (i) Criminal mistreatment in the first degree under ORS 163.205 \(Criminal mistreatment in the first degree\); and
- (ii) Endangering the welfare of a minor under ORS 163.575 \(Endangering the welfare of a minor\) (1)(a).
- (B) A crime punishable as either a felony or a misdemeanor, in the discretion of the court, except for any sex crime or for the following crimes when they would constitute child abuse as defined in ORS 419B.005 \(Definitions\):
- (i) Criminal mistreatment in the first degree under ORS 163.205 \(Criminal mistreatment in the first degree\); and
- (ii) Endangering the welfare of a minor under ORS 163.575 \(Endangering the welfare of a minor\) (1)(a).
- (C) A misdemeanor, except for endangering the welfare of a minor under ORS 163.575 \(Endangering the welfare of a minor\) (1)(a) when it would constitute child abuse as defined in ORS 419B.005 \(Definitions\) or any sex crime.
- (D) A violation.
- (6) Notwithstanding subsection (5) of this section, the provisions of subsection (1) of this section do not apply to:
- (a) A conviction for a state or municipal traffic offense.
- (b) A person convicted, within the 10-year period immediately preceding the filing of the motion pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, of any other offense, excluding motor vehicle violations, whether or not the other conviction is for conduct associated with the same criminal episode that caused the arrest or conviction that is sought to be set aside. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a conviction that has been set aside under this section shall be considered for the purpose of determining whether this paragraph is applicable.
- (c) A person who at the time the motion authorized by subsection (1) of this section is pending before the court is under charge of commission of any crime.
- (7) Notwithstanding subsection (5) of this section, the provisions of subsection (1)(a) of this section do not apply to criminally negligent homicide under ORS 163.145 \(Criminally negligent homicide\), when that offense was punishable as a Class C felony.
- (8) Notwithstanding subsection (5) of this section, the provisions of subsection (1)(a) of this section apply to a conviction for a Class B felony described in subsection (5)(a) of this section only if:

- (a) Twenty years or more have elapsed from the date of the conviction sought to be set aside or of the release of the person from imprisonment for the conviction sought to be set aside, whichever is later; and
- (b) The person has not been convicted of or arrested for any other offense, excluding motor vehicle violations, after the date the person was convicted of the offense sought to be set aside. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a conviction or arrest that has been set aside under this section shall be considered for the purpose of determining whether this paragraph is applicable.
- (9) The provisions of subsection (1)(b) of this section do not apply to:
- (a) A person arrested within the three-year period immediately preceding the filing of the motion for any offense, excluding motor vehicle violations, and excluding arrests for conduct associated with the same criminal episode that caused the arrest that is sought to be set aside.
