

Certified Local Government Historic Review Board Action Plan

The Certified Local Government (CLG) program is designed to promote historic preservation at the local level. As a partnership between the National Park Service, the Oregon SHPO, and local government, the program supports local preservation efforts through funding, training, and technical support.

1. POTENTIAL TRAINING FOR HRB – please rank 1 to 10 (one being top choice).

- New Exterior Additions to Historic Buildings: Preservation Considerations
- How To Evaluate Impact of Substitute Materials
- Windows: Repair, Retrofit and Replacement Considerations
- Incorporating Solar on Historic Buildings
- Assessing Economic Hardship Claims
- Regulating New Construction in Historic Districts: Contemporary Design
- Historic Resource Preservation Plans - Identify And Articulate Community Preservation Goals
- Incorporating Archaeology Into Local Government Historic Preservation and Planning
- Creating preservation incentives in ordinances and processes
- Other _____

2. POTENTIAL PROJECTS FOR FUTURE CLG GRANTS – please rank 1 to 9 (one being top choice).

- West Linn Under-represented Histories
- Survey and National Register Nomination of greater McLean House Archeology site
- Historic Context Statement for Highway 43
- Historic Context Statement for Waterfront Area
- Historic Resource Survey for Highway 43
- Historic Resource Survey for the Waterfront Area
- Restoration Award Program.
- Restoration/Rehabilitation Grant to Property Owners
- HRB Attendance at State or National Conferences

____ Other _____

3. POTENTIAL PROJECTS FOR HRB - please rank 1 to 6 (one being top choice).

____ Periodic Review and Update Chapter 25 & 58

____ Inadvertent Discovery of Historic and Cultural Resources Procedure/Code

____ Address the identification and protection of archaeological sites in CDC

____ Develop preservation incentives in ordinances and processes

____ Other _____

____ None

4. EDUCATION & OUTREACH ACTIVITIES - please rank 1 to 4 (one being top choice).

____ Host an Archaeology Roadshow, a program of PSU promoting the appreciation of archaeology.
Roadshow could focus on various components of West Linn history and pre-history

____ Outreach to/with Tribal communities to present and share their history

____ Participate in City Wayfaring and Branding initiative

____ Sponsor activities for Historic Preservation Month like a "This Place Matters" Photo contest

____ Other _____