TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Deadline for Proposals

Proposals for the goods or services identified above will be received by the City contact specified above via email until the date and time cited above.

Contract and Insurance

The selected proposer will be required to enter into a City standard contract with the City of West Linn for the specified goods and services which will further define the terms and conditions under which contractors shall work with the City. A copy of this contract can be provided for review at the contractor's request. Proposer shall be required to comply with all applicable public contracting laws. Certificates of insurance are required for most contracts and are expected to be included in the contractor's bid. Please inquire for insurance limit requirements.

Acceptance or Rejection of Proposals

In the award of the contract and pursuant to ORS 279B.070, the City will consider the element of time, will accept the proposal or proposals which in its estimation will best serve the interests of the City, taking into account price as well as considerations including, but not limited to, experience, expertise, product functionality, suitability for a particular purpose and contractor responsibility under ORS 279B.110. The City reserves the right to award the contract to the contractor whose proposal shall be best for the public good. The City reserves the right to accept or reject any or all proposals. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any proposal, which is incomplete, obscure or irregular, may be rejected. The City may waive immaterial informalities and irregularities. Any evidence of collusion between proposers may constitute a cause for rejection of any proposals so affected. The City may accept any items or groups of items of any offer, unless the proposer qualifies his/her offer by specific limitations.

Nondiscrimination

The successful contractor agrees that, in performing the work called for by this proposal and in securing and supplying materials, contractor will not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, religious creed, political ideas, sex, age, marital status, physical or mental handicap, national origin or ancestry unless the reasonable demands of employment are such that they cannot be met by a person with a particular physical or mental handicap. In addition, the successful contractor shall not discriminate in subcontracting against any minority, women or emerging small business enterprise, consistent with ORS 279A.110.

Preparation of Offers

Proposers are expected to examine the specifications and all instructions. Each proposer shall furnish the information required by the solicitation. Pricing shall include labor, materials, equipment, shipping, taxes, fees, or any other costs as needed to deliver a full and complete product as specified in these documents. Proposers shall sign the bid proposal. The person signing the offer must initial erasures or other changes. Proposers shall state a definite time for delivery of supplies or for performance of services. Time, if stated as a number of days, will include Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

All proposals shall be submitted on the prescribed form and in said manner as indicated in the proposal documents. Use of recycled material is encouraged. Any proposer-supplied material that is to be considered confidential must be so marked. The City reserves the right to solicit additional information or proposal clarification from the firms, or any one firm submitting proposals, should the City deem such information necessary.

City Furnished Property
