

ROBINWOOD NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION

Minutes for June 11, 2019 Meeting (Draft)

Meeting Called to Order at 7:05pm. 19 attendees.

Introductions

- Eliza Adam, Lower Midhill Drive
- Brad Kerr, organizing and creating wildflower garden in Robinwood Park in Catherine Kerr's memory.
Invited participation in garden and support at upcoming Parks & Rec meeting (Thursday, 7:00 pm at City Hall).

June 11 agenda reviewed and approved. May 14 minutes reviewed and approved.

Guest Speaker Doug Erickson, West Linn Library Director

- Doug acquainted attendees with several programs available at the library including cultural passes (now on line), the library of things (beginning this fall), technical advice on personal media devices (best to make an appointment), and various equipment including a 3D printer.
- Despite the heat, attendees were very engaged and asked many questions.

Neighborhood Plan Update

- Dennis showed a brief video of city manager's invitation to NA's to communicate with city re pedestrian preferences (i.e., sidewalks, asphalt paths, etc.) Dennis also showed some photos taken in other residential areas demonstrating lack of consistency for pedestrians. Attendees were invited to share thoughts on paths/sidewalks preferences and locations.

Treasurers Report – unchanged from last month

Standing Committee Reports

- Robinwood Station—Randall Fastabend
Renovation plans continue in "baby steps." Many activities for building use including church, boy scouts, girl scouts, parties, young magicians, dulcimer workshop, coffee instruction, garage sale, and repair fair.
- Community Garden—Lisa Clifton
Garden is green and growing well. Come take a look!

Old Business

- Picnic date is set for Saturday, August 24.

New Business

- Dennis was contacted by another NA regarding making a cash donation for recognition plaques to be presented to police department and several local fire stations. This effort is being initiated and subsidized by local Lions Club. Presentation is scheduled for Old Time Faire (July 19). Mary moved to donate $100; Duane seconded. Motion was passed.

However a point of order was later raised (post meeting) about whether this expenditure was proper as a new business item. Item will be listed on July 9 agenda as old business, and discussion/vote will be retaken at that meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 8:13 pm.

Our thanks to Leilani Chitwood who served as meeting scribe.
