

Willamette Neighborhood Association Meeting 8/8/18

>Gail called the meeting to order @ 7:06 p.m.

>Gail resigned her position as president due to impending move. Gail nominated Andrew Mallory for president and Bob seconded. The slate for the WNA Board is as follows: Andrew, Julia Simpson as vice president, Elizabeth Rocchia as Treasurer, and Kathie Halicki as secretary. The entire slate was passed unanimously.

>Stein Oil gas station property has a renter interested in using the property to work on classic, luxury cars. He may also store some cars there. The rent is said to be $5,000. - $7,000. per month.

>Resolution regarding Haggens Grocery Store site (Blankenship and 10th Street):

The Willamette Neighborhood Association resolves that the building formerly owned by Haggens Grocery Store be occupied by a grocery store, at least in part. In addition, retail businesses (such as pharmacy, coffee shop, floral shop) would be welcome accompaniments. All of these businesses would fill a real need and are conducive to a healthy community life. They would be appropriate to the current zoning.

Said resolution was written by Julia. The resolution was voted on and passed unanimously.

>Historic Willamette – Market had light attendance tonight.

> Pre-application meeting for the bus barn property is 8/16 @11:00 am. It is said that a commercial painting/coating company had “purchased” the property. They would like to put in an office building and a warehouse.

> Pre-application for 15.6 acres off Johnson Road. They would like to put in 25 lots for houses plus more to be done in other phases.

>Bob informed us that Lavender Bleu is going to house a home builder/interior design company.

>Main Street traffic is part of the GO Bond. It was presented at the City Council meeting.

> Gail adjourned the meeting @8:10.
